Oxford University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 560 pages. Dimensions: 7.7in. x 5.0in. x 0.9in. Dickens second historical novel, which he considered the best story I have written, provides a highly-charged examination of human suffering and human sacrifice. Private experience and public history paralleled one another as the political activities and personal responsibilities of these fictional characters, during the French Revolution, draw them into the Paris of the Terror. About the Series: For over 100 years Oxford Worlds Classics has made available the broadest spectrum of literature from around the globe. Each affordable volume reflects Oxfords commitment to scholarship, providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features, including expert introductions by leading authorities, voluminous notes to clarify the text, up-to-date bibliographies for further study, and much more. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
