Sustaining relations to the church of Christ now rendered somewhat peculiar, duty to his cause demands from us an explicit statement of the grounds of our secession. We believe free discussion to be the duty of every rational being. It is the acting out of the command Prove all things. It is inquiry after immutable truth, whether embodied in the word, or hid in the works of God, or branching out through the relations and duties of man. We are bound to conduct this search, wherever it may lead, and to adopt the conclusions to which it may bring us. And, whereas, the single object of ascertaining truth is to learn how to act, we are bound to do at once, whatever truth dictates to be done. This duty of discussion and action is not conferred by human authority, and we have no license to resign it upon entering into any association, literary or political. Free discussion being a duty is consequently a right, and as such, is inherent and inalienable. It is our right. It was before we entered Lane Seminary: privileges we might and did relinquish; advantages we might and did receive. But this right the institution could neither give nor take away. Theological Institutions must of course recognize this immutable principle. Proscription of free discussion is sacrilege! It is boring out the eyes of the soul. It is the robbery of mind. It is the burial of truth. If Institutions cannot stand upon...
