

God s People and God s Plan

By Trevor H Shannon

New Generation Publishing, United States, 2006. Paperback.
 Book Condition: New. 202 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. What bearing has the Old Testament on our lives today? How well are its once famous stories known, and what is the point of them? Is there a consistent pattern throughout its many books? Is the Old Testament as important for Christians as for Jews? What does it tell us about God s plans for the human race? Canon Trevor Shannon has gone a long way to answering some of those questions and to clarifying some of the difficulties and obscurities. He approaches the books historically, so that we have a continuum against which the major themes can be played: the establishment of monotheism and the Jewish nation; the gradual discovery of the possibility of a personal relationship with God; the crucial part played by the prophets; the acceptance of suffering as something other than a sign of God s displeasure; and, running alongside and beneath all these, the unquenchable belief that God intends to bring blessing on all people. The author s stated aim is to illuminate what readers already know, introduce us to some things of which we...
