Anglican Sanctification: The Work We Were Given to Do

By Dale E Matson

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .As both a psychologist and an Anglican Priest, I ask myself questions: What constitutes the attributes of a Christian? How are Christians different than those who are not Christians? Are new Christians different from older Christians? Is there some kind of emotional patina evident to others as Christians age? From the perspective of science, does Christianity offer a method or treatment with observable outcomes? Does regular church attendance, Scripture reading and service to others make a difference? Do we become what we practice? Is there a change of personality sometimes referred to as conversion of manners? Is what we call the fruits of the Spirit evident in Christian lives? Do Christians respond differently to the events in their world? Are they more resilient than others? My answer to all of these questions is, Yes. We cannot depend on our culture to be the good soil for the growth of the Kingdom of God nor should we. I believe it is our Lord s charge to His church to feed His sheep and equip His saints for service. We...
