

Past Imperfect

By MR Tony Stowers

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Imperfect: a particular set of verb forms, found in Romance languages like Spanish, French and Italian. The imperfect is Past in tense and Imperfective in aspect, and it usually denotes an action, which extended over a period of time in the past. There is no single English equivalent. - The Penguin Dictionary of English Grammar. This is my true account of my experiences teaching English in France from 2006 to 2011. As a guide book with tips and advice, it's pretty honest, candid and accurate. As an author, well, I'm far from perfect, quite imperfect, but I wouldn't want it any other way. I like to believe it makes me what I am: human, fallible and authentic, which from an observer's POV could just as easily read: dumb, weak and superficial. Well, we all need to be who we are and not what and whom we think we have to be to please people around us, right? We're not living our lives for others, something we forget at our peril, but so,...
