Last week I walked up to Pinegrove an iron works about sixteen miles in the moun tains where resides the Mr. Ege I have so often spoken about j as the mighty Nimrod of our county. On my arrival I found I a fine wild cat hanging in the stable which had been killed a? few days before. On returning the next day I took the cat with me slung across my shoulders, and on reaching home after measuring weighing it skinned it. I am in hopes of getting some more from here, as they promised to catch all they could for me. Baird signed himself Your affectionate pupil, and added in a postscript: I forgot to say that I had a fine steak of the wild cat broiled and it tasted like a tender piece of...
