Reviews

The publication is great and fantastic. It is probably the most remarkable book i actually have read through. Its been printed in an exceedingly easy way and it is merely right after i finished reading through this publication where in fact altered me, modify the way i think.

Excerpt: . . . bright star now grew more bright, and of a deeper red, and shot forth the most angry fires on every side. Nothing could exceed the terrors of Anastasia. The star seemed now to approach her, and gust after gust, like the rushing of so many heavy wings, passed and repassed over the couch where she lay, lifting and rending its silken drapery. She cried aloud once more in her apprehension. Forgive, forgive me, dearest Albert--forgive me that I have offended. Come to me--be as thou wert--I will obey thee--I will never offend thee more. Too late--too late, cried a voice of sorrow rather than of anger from the bosom of the cloud, which now hung, like a dense wreath of vapour, just above the couch where she lay. It is too late, dearest Anastasia--I can return to thee no more. Wherefore--wherefore was the interrogation of the terrified woman. It is the doom ! was the hollow answer from the cloud; and the star that still shone from the vague form before her seemed to shed drops of blood, that fell even upon the garments of her couch, as the mournful voice thus responded to her inquiry. Alas! alas! wherefore is this doom she cried once more to the shadow and the star. Thou hast already asked too much. I warned thee, my Anastasia. Was it not enough to know that thou wert happy Why wast thou not satisfied with thy condition Thou hast destroyed...
